

BRUSHY CREEK YOUTH LEAGUE PARENT'S CODE OF CONDUCT

- Do not force your children to participate in any sport, but support their desire to play. Children are involved in sports for their enjoyment. Make it fun!
- Encourage your child to play by the rules. Remember that children learn best by example, so applaud the good play of all players.
- Do not embarrass your child by yelling at other players, coaches, or officials. By being a positive role model and showing a positive attitude toward the game and ALL it's participants, your child will benefit.
- Emphasize skill development, the importance of practice, and how they help your child.
- Know and study the rules of the sport your child is participating in, and support the officials on and off the court. Familiarize yourself with the specific rules of our youth league. This will only help in the development and support of the game.
- Applaud a good effort in both victory and defeat, and enforce the positive points of the game.
- Never yell or physically abuse your child after a match, or practice. It is destructive
- Recognize the importance of volunteer youth sports coaches. They are important to the development of your child and the sport. Communicate with them and support them.
- Support an athletic environment that is free from drugs, tobacco, and alcohol and refrain from their use at all events.
- If you enjoy youth sports, learn all you can and dedicate time as a volunteer!

AS A SPECTATOR, ALWAYS STRIVE TO:

- Display good sportsmanship. Always respect players, coaches, and officials.
- Act appropriately; do not taunt or disturb other spectators. Enjoy the match together.
- Cheer good play of ALL participants; avoid booing opponents, or applauding opponent's errors.
- Help provide a safe and fun environment.
- Support the officials and coaches by trusting their judgment and integrity.
- Respect and courtside seating as private areas for players, coaches, and officials. DO NOT APPROACH THE SCORERS TABLE!
