

Athlete's Code of Conduct

1. Have FUN!
2. You will show the utmost discipline and sportsmanship at ALL times.
3. We will win, lose, or draw with the same integrity.
4. Arrive to practice and games on time.
5. Respect your parents, coaches, referees, and teachers.
6. Respect your teammates. All issues you may have with other players should be brought to the attention of a coach immediately.
7. You will cheer for your individual teammates and the team as a whole.
8. You will follow ALL rules at all times.
9. Once again, the main focus here is for you to have FUN.
10. I have read and understand the Boys and/or Girls Competition Basketball League Rules. I agree to abide by these rules and that my ability to participate in this league is contingent on abiding by these rules.

Parental Code of Support

1. Support your athlete's desire to play, learn, and have fun.
2. Support the coach's efforts to teach your athlete.
3. Support your athlete wherever they play or how much they play.
4. Support ALL players on the team. Remember, every player is someone's child.
5. Support your team with positive remarks or comments. Remember, everyone makes mistakes regardless of their talent level or age. Encouraging words, after a mistake, will go much further than any negative comment.
6. Support your team's good sportsmanship policy whether they win, lose, or draw. Remember, the ultimate goal is to get a little better each day, and to use every win, loss, or draw as a learning opportunity to make each player a better overall athlete.
7. Demonstrate that we all appreciate good play and effort by every team and athlete.
8. Refrain from talking to your athlete during practice or games.
9. Refrain from interacting with the other team's players, fans, or the referees during/after the game.
10. Enjoy the time that you get to watch your athlete play, learn, and have fun playing a sport that they themselves enjoy.
11. Remember, you can have a profound effect on your athlete's desire to play sports. The choice is ultimately up to you whether that effect is positive or negative.
11. I have read and understand the Boys and/or Girls Competition Basketball League Rules. I agree to abide by these rules and that my ability to participate in this league is contingent on abiding by these rules.
