

Five-O's, Prime Time Stay Hot In Senior Softball Action

By Ken Kotelly

A fifth straight win by the Five-O's and a fourth consecutive victory by surging Prime Time highlighted play in the Lexington Men's Senior Softball League this past week, which also included impressive wins by Midnight Express and MJB Consulting.

When this past week started the Five-O's were still the league's long unbeaten squad with an undefeated streak dating back to 2021. This past week the Five-O's kept its perfect record intact with yet another winning effort to remain firmly in the league's top spot a game and a half ahead of three other teams.

John Sym was its hitting star with four hits, while Rey Forcina added three hits, and Bobby Waters, Mark Robards, and Mike Reimer chipped in two hits apiece, to lead the Five-O's to a convincing 10-0 victory over Battle Green, and improve its record to a perfect 5-0.

Dean Thomas had two hits for Battle Green.

When play began this past week Prime Time carried a three-game winning streak after dropping its first two contests. This past week Prime Time stayed hot with yet another easy win to remain among three teams tied for second place behind the Five-O's.

Joe Walsh carried their offensive attack with four hits, while Gregg Armstrong and Bill Smith added three hits each, and Carmelo Rosado chipped in two hits, to carry Prime Time to an easy 10-0 win over Metro Contracting, and improve its record to 4-2.

Eric Steinkrauss had three hits for Metro Contracting.

When the action began this past week Midnight Express had won three of its previous four games after losing its season opener.

This past week Midnight Express continued its recent surge with an impressive solid effort to move into a three-way tie for the league's second spot.

Alan Bortman and Mike Monteiga both carried its hitting display with three hits each, while Charlie Gauthier, Dave Ossam, Joe Neas, John Lanza, and Steve Piraino added two hits apiece, to help Midnight Express defeat Foul Play 14-3 for its fourth win in five games, and improve its record to 4-2.

Jeremy Tate and Eric Pearlman both had two hits for Foul Play. MJB Consulting carried a 3-2 record into this past week's action. This past week MJB Consulting put together another big offensive outburst to remain among a trio of teams now tied for the league's second spot.

Bob DiCicco provided most of the offensive spark with six hits, while Tom Ford and Bill and Greg Carr all added four hits, and Mark Bergeron, Mike Parenti, Ed McGrath, and Scott Tompkins chipped in three hits apiece, to carry MJB Consulting to a 19-5 triumph over the Goodtimers, and improve its record to 4-2.

Herb Cabral had three hits, and Mike Franchella, Paul George, Sal Serio, Dan Abramson, and Dan Apstein all added two hits for the Goodtimers.
