

Code of Conduct

For Parents:

- I will encourage and support my child's participation in sports in a positive and respectful manner.
- I will demonstrate good sportsmanship by showing respect for all players, coaches, officials, and other parents, regardless of the outcome of the game.
- I will refrain from using abusive language, taunting, or making negative comments toward any participant, coach, or official.
- I will respect the decisions and judgments made by the coaches and officials and will communicate any concerns through the appropriate channels in a respectful and constructive manner.
- I will promote a safe and inclusive environment for all participants, and I will not tolerate any form of bullying, discrimination, or harassment.

For Coaches:

- I will always prioritize the well-being and development of the young athletes under my supervision.
- I will lead by example and demonstrate good sportsmanship, fairness, and respect for all participants, coaches, officials, and parents.
- I will create a positive and supportive environment that promotes skill development, teamwork, and enjoyment of the sport.
- I will communicate openly and effectively with parents, players, and other coaches, and I will address any concerns or conflicts in a professional and timely manner.
- I will ensure that all activities and interactions with athletes are conducted in a safe and respectful manner, and I will adhere to all relevant guidelines and regulations.

For Players:

- I will show respect for my teammates, coaches, opponents, officials, and spectators at all times.
- I will adhere to the rules of the game and compete fairly, without resorting to unsportsmanlike conduct or cheating.
- I will accept both victory and defeat with grace and use them as opportunities for learning and personal growth.
- I will communicate any concerns or conflicts to my coach or other appropriate authority in a respectful and constructive manner.
- I will uphold the values of teamwork, discipline, and sportsmanship, and I will not engage in any form of bullying, discrimination, or harassment.

This code of conduct should be communicated to all participants and their families at the beginning of each season, and it should be consistently enforced to ensure a positive and respectful sports environment for everyone involved.
